

As a former public school special education teacher (36 years), I oppose the passing of this legislation.

Policies within the bill would be detrimental to the education of many students and to the effectiveness of those involved in their education.

Most sincerely,
Debra A. Wynn
Glastonbury